Yesterday's Fire Alarm.

The department was called out yesterday afternoon on account of a fire in the roof of Hasenauer's shoe store, on Main street below the new bridge. The nection. After the fire was out Chief Healy repaired the connection.

Yesterday Joseph J. G. and Ed L.
 Straub and Conrad Ebberts were ar-

ROBERT T. FREW DEAD.

He Passes Peacefully away after a Brief Illness.

About half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon Mr. Robert T. Frew died at his home at 140 Eighteenth street, after being confined to the house just one week. His illness originated from a sore foot, which troubled him for a number of weeks, and finally developed into blood poison, which developed into dropsy of the heart. This was the immediate cause of death.

Mr. Frew had been in the employ of successive publishers of the INTELLIGEN-CER for over thirty years, with an interval spent in the army. He had for years been news pressman, and before that was a pressman in the job room.
 He was born in Steubenville, Ohio, in 1844, and came to Wheeling with the family in 1852, and this city has been his home ever since. He entered the INTELLIGENCER office as a boy, but left it October 17, 1881, to enlist under Capt.
 William Morgan in Company E of the First Virginia Volunteer Infantry, and he served faithfully till the end of the war, being honorably discharged July 21, 1865, when his regiment was mustered out. He soon returned to his former occupation and has faithfully served the INTELLIGENCER ever since.

He was a brother of Mr. John Frew, of the INTELLIGENCER, and of Councilman Alex. Frew. He leaves a wife to mourn the loss of a devoted and affectionate husband. She has the deepest sympathy in her affliction.

Retiring and quiet in his disposition, he yet possessed in a peculiar degree the friendship of those associated with him, as well as all who knew him well, and his memory will long be cherished by many true friends.

The funeral will occur Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, the interment being at the Peninsular cemetery.

FAILED TO MEET.

City Council Was Unable to Secure a Quorum Last Evening.

A meeting of the city council was called for last evening, but as a quorum was not obtainable in the second branch nothing was done. It was some time after 8 o'clock when the second and first branch members proceeded to their respective chambers. Chairman Waterhouse called the lower branch to order, when it was found that there were three less than a quorum present, and as there was no prospect of getting the three, Mr. Robertson moved that the branch adjourn; the motion prevailed, though there was some opposition. In the first branch there was a quorum, and they were about to proceed with business—consideration of the ordinance granting the Wheeling & Elm Grove road a franchise for the use of certain streets in East Wheeling—when it became known that the second had adjourned, and the first followed suit.

None of the business that would have come up for action was of a very pressing nature, and can rest until the next regular meeting.

Martin's Ferry Council.

A regular meeting of Martin's Ferry council was held last evening at which considerable business was transacted.
 The bill of Engineer Carter, of New York, for preparing plans for a complete sewerage system for the city of Martin's Ferry came up for consideration and it was ordered paid. It was decided to issue bonds to pay Mrs.
 Erwin $2,000 damages, caused by the death of her husband; she was about to enter suit against the city. After some discussion it was decided to receive propositions from the two electric railway companies and any other concerns, for the lighting of the streets of the town.

When it became known after the meeting of the city legislators that they had decided to pay Engineer Carter's bill for plans furnished for a sewerage system, there was some indignation among citizens, and it is almost certain that the association of taxpayers, lately organized as a "holder back" to council, will get out an injunction restraining the payment of the bill. The ground for the association's confidence that they can prevent the payment of the bill is that there is no money in the proper fund from which this bill should be paid.

 cide. The consequences of a neglected
